Who's Doing Your Taxes?

It's always tax time at Jordan-Elbridge Tax Service!

Michael Lawrence, an enrolled agent does more than just prepare tax returns. As a federally licensed practitioner, Michael represents taxpayers, both individuals & businesses as well as provides tax advise throughout the year.

On average, Michael spends more than 60 hours in the classroom per year striving to maintain his technical expertise in the ever-changing field of taxation. So, when a taxpayer needs help with their taxes, whether they prepared their own return or paid someone else to do it, that taxpayer can come to Jordan-Elbridge Tax service knowing they will be effectively be represented by someone who has demonstrated competence in taxation.

Jordan-Elbridge Tax Service is centrally located in the Village of Jordan. It provides reasonably priced tax preparation for individuals & all types of businesses & exempt organizations.

Jordan-Elbridge Tax Service also provides bookkeeping and payroll services to small businesses, which are tailored to meet the needs of each business, including sales tax preparation, and employment tax preparation. As an EFTPS service provider, I provide for the electronic payment of your federal tax obligations, both estimated tax payments for individuals and employment and other business taxes.
